WRGB & WCWN

Annual EEO Public File Report

The purpose of the EEO Public File Report (“Report”) is to comply with Section 73.2080(c)(6) of the FCC’s 2002 EEO Rule. This Report has been prepared on behalf of the Station Employment Unit that is comprised of the following station(s): WRGB and WCWN Schenectady New York and is required to be placed in the public inspection files of these stations, and posted on their web sites, if they have web sites.

The information contained in this Report covers the time period beginning February 1, 2011 to January 31, 2012.

The FCC’s 2002 EEO Rule requires that this Report contain the following information:

1. A list of all full-time vacancies filled by the Station(s) comprising the Station Employment Unit during the Applicable Period;
2. For each such vacancy, the recruitment source(s) utilized to fill the vacancy (including, if applicable, organizations entitled to notification pursuant to Section 73.2080(c)(1)(ii) of the new EEO Rule, which should be separately identified by name, address, contact person and telephone number;
3. The recruitment source that referred the hiree for each full-time vacancy during the Applicable Period;
4. Data reflecting the total number of persons interviewed for full-time vacancies during the Applicable Period and the total number of interviewees referred by each recruitment source utilized in connection with such vacancies; and
5. A list and brief description of the initiatives undertaken pursuant to Sections 73.2080(c)(2) of the FCC rules.

Appendices 1, 2, and 3, which follow, have been designed, in the aggregate, to provide the required information. Please note that the numbers listed on Appendix 2 under the column entitle “Full-Time Positions for Which This Source Was Utilized” refer to the number of the full-time job positions listed on Appendix 1.

For the purposes of this Report, a vacancy was deemed “filled” not when the offer was extended but when the hiree accepted the job offer and started in the position. A person was deemed “interviewed” when he or she was interviewed in person.

Section 3: Supplemental (Non-Vacancy Specific) Recruitment Activities Undertaken by WRGB & WCWN

INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Establish an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.

The WRGB/WCWN has an internship program as defined below:

Program Goal:

The goal of our internship program is to recruit candidates from local colleges and technical schools and prepare them for entry-level jobs within the broadcast industry.

Program Objectives:

- Develop links with colleges, universities and technical schools to promote the Station Employment Unit as a prospective employer.
- Create symbiotic relationship between interns and Station Employment Unit.
- Provide interns with opportunities to translate classroom theories into industry applications. Interns will have the opportunities to develop practical skills that will improve their chances for success in the broadcast industry.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Applicants must be attending an accredited institution. Graduate students are also eligible.
- The applicant must be at least 18 years of age.
- The applicants must be in good academic standing as defined by his or her academic institution.

- The applicants must receive academic credit for their internship experience. He/She must be registered for college credit at his/her institutions during the quarter or semester in which the internship is performed. Interns are not paid.

In addition to meeting the institution's eligibility requirements, the applicant must meet the Station Employment Unit's eligibility requirements.

Any person interested in an internship should contact WRGB/WCWN for more details.

Internship Program Review

Our 2011 internship programs attracted twenty six college students and one student from Albany Law School. The students interned in the News Department. The colleges represented were SUNY Albany, SUNY Oswego, SUNY Genesio, Syracuse University, Cornell University, College of Saint Rose, Union College, Quinnipiac University and New School of Radio and Television.

Educational Events

Station personnel participated in the following events during the reporting period:

TRAINING

The station is an equal opportunity employer. Equal employment opportunity has been and continues to be both the Company's policy and practice. In order to provide equal employment and advancement opportunities to all individuals, employment decisions will be based on merit, qualifications, and abilities. We will recruit, hire, train, promote, and make all other employment decisions without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, Acquired-Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS), AIDS-Related Complex (ARC), veteran status or any other category protected by law.

1/18/12: Business Manager completed the on-line training course entitled Recognizing and preventing Sexual Harassment: Manager's Edition.

11/11: During November 2011 the following department managers received booklets entitled "Preventing Sexual Harassment and Other Forms of Discrimination" and "Preventing Discrimination in Your Workplace." – Production Manager, Creative Services Manager, News Director, General Sales Manager and Business Manager. These individuals also signed statements acknowledging awareness of the company policies relating to discrimination, harassment and workplace protocol and their responsibility to comply with and enforce EEO rules and company policies.

2/22/11 and 4/6/11: Newly promoted WCWN Local Sales Manager on these dates viewed two separate DVDs. One was entitled "EEO Compliance For Supervisors and Managers" and the other "Legal Survival Skills for the Modern Manager." A Q&A with the Business Manager followed each one of these sessions. At the conclusion of each session a statement acknowledging receipt of the dvd and awareness of the company policies relating to discrimination, harassment and workplace protocol were signed. The statement also contains an acknowledgement of responsibility as a supervisor/manager to comply with and enforce EEO rules and company policies.
